DELTA WORKING LANDSCAPES

Working Landscapes:
What are They, and What do They do?
Wednesday, October 24, 2012
3 pm - 5 pm

Jean Harvie Community Center
14273 River Road
Walnut Grove, CA 95690

Working Landscapes are projects which enable farmland to be utilized as valuable wildlife habitat by providing opportunities for private landowners to combine environmental stewardship while protecting agriculture.

Working Landscapes integrate wildlife conservation with productive agriculture. Benefits include: subsidence reversal; salinity control; waterfowl habitat; invasive species and weed control; urban encroachment restrain; runoff reduction; etc.

A detailed agenda will be distributed closer to meeting date.

Light refreshments will be served.
